

AMAZING RACE

The most exciting iPad Team event in Switzerland

The Amazing Race is the first real-time photo rally in Switzerland! Over 50 photo missions are waiting to be solved. Which team will master all the challenges and who will win in the end? The highlight of this excellent and award-winning new event form is the live evaluation of all photo missions by the game master.

And this is how it works: After a short introduction by the event manager, the teams are asked to solve as many photo missions as possible within a certain time. For this purpose, each team is equipped with an iPad. The app installed on the iPad shows them the upcoming missions, registers points and networks their devices in real time with the devices of the other teams. They only have to think, combine, discuss and play by themselves. The framework is set solely by the time and the goal of achieving the maximum number of points. After the return of all teams, the exciting award ceremony follows. The winner is...
